

RENNtech and ADV.1 present the World's First 10 second AMG GT-S.

10.94 seconds @ 128 mph

Another successful collaboration between world renowned Mercedes-Benz Tuner RENNtech and Official Designer of the Wheel Industry, ADV.1 Wheels.

This GT-S is equipped with the latest RENNtech ECU upgrade and Downpipes with Sport Cats, as well as ADV5.2 Track Spec CS wheels.

The 10.94s @ 128mph quarter mile pass was achieved at Palm Beach International Raceway on June 19th 2015.

This marks just the beginning of the RENNtech tuning and performance development for the AMG GT-S.

Stay tuned for more updates!
